Some comments made by the European jury members

First Impression	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Stylish, well-made and very individual.• Abundant in strong personality and character.• Beer with distinguished and authentic flavours, excellent structure with a long flavoursome end.• Lots of fruit, caramelized sugars, fine spices and hops.
Vision	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Clear, cloudy, deep yellow with orange/gold hues.• Good persistent foam quality.• Cloudy amber colour supporting a thin cap of foam that persists well.• Inviting luminous appearance.
Olfaction	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Clean, healthy, pronounced and complex rustic flavours of citrus fruit and hops.• Underneath herbal flavours are subtle yet very flattering.• Fresh yeasty notes are clean and aromatic.
Taste	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Well balanced acidity supports big weight of rich fruit flavour similar as on nose.• Full-bodied and rich texture of the mid-palate is enriched by a very fresh and active mousse.• Lovely acidity and smooth alcohol that is well integrated.
Final sensation	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Fine after taste. Good harmony between sweetness, bitterness and acidity.• Long rich finish has a bitter marmalade orange twist.• Elongated mellow aftertaste.
